RE: DYLP 2012 ADMISSIONS

Out of a pool of several applicants across the world, I am happy to inform you that you have been selected to participate in the inaugural edition of the 'Discovering Young Leaders Programme' DYLP course. Congratulations!

On behalf of the Commonwealth Youth Programme Regional Centre for Africa course delivery team, I wish you success in completing this course over the next five weeks (from 17 September to 19 October, 2012). The course will be delivered on a wiki online learning platform which you can access at <http://213.193.35.158/wiki/DyLp>

You are required to sign-in on the site after receiving an email from us with your username and password. Your username will permit you to access your personal webpage on the wiki to enable you complete the course and monitor your progress online. All other reading materials and programme instructions will be emailed to you shortly. Feel free to navigate through the site and get acquainted with it. Here you will be part of a social network and online discussions with other participants in 39 countries across the Commonwealth and beyond. You will post your comments, submit your reflections online, and engage in moderated peer-to-peer discussions.

Please note that to qualify for the completion certificate, you will need to compose and post at least 20 edits (comments) throughout the course, complete at least 5 online reflections and submit one course assignment.

Course updates will be sent to you via emails and through the Facebook event page for DYLP. Join the CYPAfrica Facebook page (www.facebook.com/groups/cypafrica/) for community support. For further IT assistance during the course, contact b.sikute@commonwealth.int. If you have problems accessing the materials and for general support, kindly email w.salami@commonwealth.int. Further information on this and other online courses from CYP are available at <http://africa.commonwealth.int>

Thank you for your participation. I look forward to meeting and interacting with you on DYLP site. Wishing you a happy and fun-filled learning experience!

Yours sincerely,

Wale Salami

Course Coordinator
